Lee Ann,

I'm glad Carolyn introduced us. You are really nice and I hope we can lead to more. I'm happy things are going the way they are between us. Next year is your big, senior, year, and I'll still be lower class. But at least I won't be an immature freshman. We better see each other during the summer. Because I want things to keep going the way they are now.

DEDICATION

On Branham's campus there is a rare treat for a certain group of students. It is a teacher, who despite her vast knowledge and sophistication, is able to identify with all her students. She understands what they value and most importantly shows that she cares about them. For the past three years she has packed up her bags and flown off to Europe to accompany these students on a whirlwind, crash course in art history and fun. You can't help but be impressed by her when she talks about the great masterpieces of the world!

She advises an active art commission and has been seen on afternoons and weekends working with them on projects. Her arrival at Branham brought a new creative spark to the Art Department and many awards and honors to her students work. Those of us who know her will never forget her. For such a little person she sure has a lot to offer and a heart of gold.

The Ursa Maior Staff dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Karen Parsagian, our teacher and friend.

Well Boss- We've made it through another chapter in the history of life. History- Get it. Like this history class was a joke, Mr. Sweeney was a nice guy- but I loved teasing him. Wow, I never realized that we had 3 classes together. German was even a bigger joke, I think that I learned only one thing in that class. And that was how to talk dirty and writes dirty words in German. Bob was a crackup- dirty... but funny.

Hopefully next year you will have more classes together. we can get out again wherever you are upset. I'm glad that I was there to help you through all of your troubles, and missing class was even a bigger blast. So try ~~to~~ to have alot of problems next year and I'll try to do the same. Even though I NEVER have hade any problems with my life.

I can't wait, boss next week we start working together. Champaign Openings sound fun. I hope that there are alot of new movies this summer, so we can get smashed a few times together. But I don't want you taking advantage of me or anything, but its an ~~[illegible]~~ idea.=Jk

Have a cool summer!

See you next week, Boss

"Class of 85"

Love Always!

Steve & Janice

P.S. When we start working, you & I will have to go borrow some of the champaign & popcorn and go up on the mountain, and have ourselves a little ~~sex~~ party. So we can fuck & suck each others brains out. You turn me on you bucket of ~~[illegible]~~ lust. Erotically yours, Steve
